Verse 1

And them lights kept flashin, and them people kept askin, how you make it this far, a rose in the concrete reaching for the stars? How he defy the odds, the story of his life through these 16 bars, but little Johnnies at home, wonder where his daddy went, wonder where he roams. Cause a man aint a man if he choose to not be there to hold his sons hand. Got his first A plus then he caught a beat down in the back of the bus, as if growin up aint enough, you just showin up aint enough. Yeah, what happened to the vows? How's he supposed to grow up when you keep growin down,

Chorus

Please daddy stay, I'll help make it better just give me one day. Mom and you can make things right. Please don't go away tonight.

Verse2

And them lights kept flashin, and them people kept askin, how you make it this far? A gem in a rock, must've fallen from the stars. How she defy the odds, the story of her life through these 16 bars, but little susies at home, wonder where her mommy went, wonder where she roams. Cause a woman aint a woman when she walks out and she can't see what she;s doin. Susie got her first A plus then she got teased cause they said she knew too much, as if growin up aint enough, you just showin up aint enough. Man, what happened to the vows? How's she supposed to grow up when you keep growin down,

Chorus

Please mommy stay, I'll help make it better just give me one day. You and dad can make things right. Please don't go away tonight.

Bridge

You say it's not my fault, you say our loves not lost, so why just walk away, tell me why can't you stay? Please tell me if I did something wrong to break apart our happy home? I know that I can change, I swear I'll change just please don't go wont you stay.

Chorus

Please daddy stay, I'll help make it better just give me one day. Mom and you can make things right. Please don't go away tonight.

Please mommy stay, I'll help make it better just give me one day. You and dad can make things right. Please don't go away tonight.

Don't walk away, don't walk away, please don't leave me here alone, you know I need you both so please stay, please stay, please stay...
